

What is the weight limit for riding? Can children Ride?

We have a weight limit of 235# for all riders, which is strictly enforced. Children must be at least 4' tall and able to follow instructions. Wrangler / Guide may refuse a rider for any reason. All children under 18 are required to wear a helmet unless a parent signs off.

For pack trips, all riders must be in reasonable shape and Guide / Wrangler will make determination on whether guest meets minimum riding ability. (This will be determined via communication prior to trip).

Do you require Waiver / Releases?

Anyone riding our stock, or using one of our camps, must complete our Waiver form prior to beginning the activity.

What should I wear?

A brimmed hat is always suggested but it must have a stampede string, or be a ballcap that can be snugged down tight. Additionally, a raincoat and water bottle are suggested. Footwear should have a defined heel. Boots are preferred but not required. ABSOLUTELY NO OPEN-TOED SHOES WILL BE ALLOWED. Please wear long pants (no shorts).

Can I take a day pack or other items on my horse?

NO BACKPACKS will be allowed to be worn while riding. No additional bags may be tied on your horse. If you believe you need a particular item to stay with you, that is not listed, please discuss with us before you arrive so everyone is prepared. We may provide saddle bags for your smaller items (small purses, cameras, phones, etc).

What additional information should I know?

All backcountry users should be familiar with Leave No Trace practices and other applicable USFS rules and guidelines. Please make sure you specifically review the USFS Regulations pertaining to the Eagle Cap Wilderness.
